

Commies Are Dragging, Dulles Says

WILLIAM CALVERT

WASHINGTON (UP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today said the Communists are dragging their feet at Geneva, Far East conference intensifying military operations in Indochina.

Dulles told a news conference that this gives the lie to the Communist desire for peace. He said the Western powers should not let the Communists prolong negotiations. He said primary responsibility for the situation is up to France and Viet Nam, but that the Communists are dragging their feet.

In London, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden warned the Communists that Britain is fully aware of the situation and must take it into account in any peace conference.

Dulles said the Communists are viewed as a clear hindrance to peace. He said the Communists are dragging their feet, but that the Western powers are not giving up.

NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK (UP) — The stock market was shaken severely today by a major selling wave that hit hard in the second hour.

By early afternoon, the reaction spent itself, and the market steadied above the lows. Trading then was slow.

Losses went to between 1 and 4 points in many instances. Few issues were able to withstand the drive.

Theft, aircraft, railroads, and oils were the most seriously involved in the decline, and also hard hit were the atomic issues, motors, coppers, distillers, rubbers chemicals, and utilities.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS
CHICAGO (UP) — Grains rallied from an early selloff on the Board of Trade today following news the House Agriculture Committee had voted to extend 90 per cent of parity support levels for another year.

Before the rally the market had drifted lower on an expanding wheat harvest in the Southwest, favorable weather for corn and soybean growth in the Midwest and uncertainty created by action of Canada and the United States in reducing prices of wheat for export.

Wheat closed 1/4 lower to 3/4 higher, July $1.94-1/4, corn 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, July $1.55-1/2, oats 1/4 higher, July 70 1/2 c, soybeans 1/4 higher, July $1.05, and soybeans 7 cents lower to 2 cents higher, July $3.60-3/4.

NEW YORK COTTON
NEW YORK (UP) — Cotton futures were irregular in slow trading today. July liquidation unsettled the balance of the market during the forenoon. With prices dropping slightly under the previous close, the market later firmed on news the House Agriculture Committee had approved a one year extension of the 90 per cent of parity support on basic farm commodities.

Late afternoon prices were 35 cents a bale higher to 10 cents lower than the previous close, July 34.25, Oct. 34.17 and Dec. 34.15.

Wants U. S. to Decide on Policy

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) said today it is time for the administration to make up its mind about what course it intends to follow in combating communism in Indochina and Southeast Asia.

Gore said he agrees with an assertion by Sen. Knowland of California the Republican Senate leader, that the free world has come to a "jumping-off place" and cannot afford to let the Reds continue talking in Indochina while they sawl territory in Indochina.

"I agree with Sen. Knowland's view but Congress can't take the lead in this matter," Gore said in an interview. "Before a Congress can act at all the administration must make up its mind what it is going to do."

"We seemed to have assurances previously that the Joint Chiefs of Staff and Secretary of State Dulles had made the decision that we must fight, if necessary, to keep the Communists from overrunning Southeast Asia."

"But last week the President said he hadn't made up his mind about submitting to Congress any proposal for authorizing action in that area. Whom are we to follow: The Joint Chiefs and the secretary of state or the President?"

Knowland said in a weekend interview he believes the next 30 days will see one of the decisive turning points in history, with the free world either deciding to act or, by failing to do so, letting Asia slide to the Communists.

HOT SPRINGS (UP) — The 1954 annual meeting of the Little Rock attracted some 400 delegates. Church opened here today.

The annual meeting, headed by Bishop Paul E. Martin, Little Rock, attracted some 400 delegates and representatives of 340 Methodist churches in the conference.

The issue of segregation, though not on the agenda, was expected to be discussed at this meeting.

Rev. J. M. Hamilton, superintendent of the Arkadelphia district, is host.

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — Gov. Francis Cherry hit back yesterday at some of his critics who have accused him of being a "do nothing governor."

Cherry told members of the Arkansas Butane Dealers association in convention here: "We've had very few good fundamental governmental practices in this state in the past and we're trying to change all that now."

"Our methods may not be flashy but they're doing a lot of good."

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — A total of 191 housing units for military personnel at Little Rock and Blytheville has been proposed to Congress by the Defense Department.

The units, totaling $2,578,500 were included in a program for 25,003 such units to be built at military installations at a total cost of $350,000,000.

The housing units at Little Rock air base would cost $1,539,000 and those at Blytheville air base $1,039,000.

The units would be for officers and top-grade non-coms and their families.

Suggests McCarthy See Psychiatrist

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. Symington told Sen. McCarthy today he "better go to a psychiatrist."

Symington tossed out that advice as he and McCarthy hooked up in another angry exchange at the McCarthy-Army hearings.

It was touched off when McCarthy insisted that Symington ought to take the witness stand.

Symington demanded, in turn, that McCarthy testify under oath in connection with 1952 charges involving McCarthy which were investigated by a Senate subcommittee.

As McCarthy referred to Symington as "sanctimonious," Symington broke in to say heatedly "Senator McCarthy, I resent that reference to my first name."

Symington then said McCarthy ought to consult a psychiatrist.

The row was a renewal of a hostile two senators had late yesterday.

McCarthy contended then that taining buying power.

"The extensions proposed by this bill must come sooner or later," Larson said. "They are, in fact, long overdue."

the transcript of a March 8 telephone talk between Symington and Secretary of the Army Stevens indicated that Symington and Clark Clifford, once special counsel to former President Truman, had influenced Stevens to accuse McCarthy and his aides of seeking preferential treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine, drafted consultant to McCarthy's investigations subcommittee.

At the outset of this afternoon's session, McCarthy told the subcommittee he doubts the Senate could "force" Symington to testify in the inquiry, but that he believes the Missouri senator would be wise to do so because of public opinion.

Symington replied: "I have no objection of any kind to saying anything under oath that I say not under oath, because I tell the truth."

Symington then said McCarthy ought to consult a psychiatrist.

What! 15 million ice cream cones a day?

TEXAS EASTERN SERVES THE COMPANIES THAT SERVE YOU

Five thousand cones an hour are baked in this natural-gas-fired rotary oven. Eastern Baking Company uses gas from the Cambridge Gas Light Company, served by Algonquin Gas Transmission Company, a customer of Texas Eastern.

Would you believe it? Across this country 15 million ice cream cones are sold every single day! That's a lot of ice cream... and a lot of cones.

The delicate crispness that you enjoy in a perfectly baked cone is no accident. It takes perfect timing and clean heat that can be exactly controlled. That's why Eastern Baking and other ice cream cone makers use gas. You'll find natural gas the ideal fuel for all your cooking, too!

High Tribunal Affirms Sentence

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today affirmed a 4-to-3, a four-year sentence against a Negro who previously had won reversal of a three-year sentence for the same charge.

A year ago the Court set aside the three-year term given to Warren Green, Drew County Negro, on a conviction of stealing a cow. The court held that Negroes had been systematically excluded from the jury which tried Green.

On a second trial before a jury which included Negroes, Green again was convicted of grand larceny and sentenced to four years. He appealed the second conviction on the ground that Sheriff Jack Towler had made a threatening gesture toward him where he could be seen by the Negro jurors. The majority opinion, written by Chief Justice Griffin Smith, said there was no evidence to show the sheriff made such a gesture.

"GONE WITH THE WIND" AND YEARS—Four-year-old Cammie King, who played daughter Bonnie Blue to Rhett Butler (Clark Gable), left, in "Gone With the Wind," was also present in Atlanta, Ga., for the movie's second world premiere. Only now she's a pretty 19-year-old, studying toward a television career at the University of Southern California.

Normandy 10 Years After D-Day

By HAL BOYLE

OMAHA BEACH, France (AP) — What was it like on the beaches of Normandy 10 years after D-Day?

The French people showed yesterday they haven't forgotten the 9,485 Americans still in St. Laurent Cemetery and those thousands of others who died here but are buried in their homeland.

French Tricolors decorated every small town to welcome visitors. More than 25,000 turned out to hear speeches at Utah Beach by France's President Rene Coty and U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., President Eisenhower's personal representative.

Gen. J. Lawton Lightening Joe Collins and Gen. Lee T. Gerow, commanders of the two American corps that landed here on June 6, 1944 were among the host of high-ranking Army Air Force and Navy officers present from half a dozen countries.

There were bands lines of marching men and speeches about unity at half a dozen celebrations in Normandy, but in the end it was the 9,485 crosses at St. Laurent just behind Omaha Beach that gave the deepest lesson in unity.

They presented row on row, one of the major costs of the Normandy landing a might Allied effort that saw 326,547 men 54,188 tanks and vehicles and 104,428 tons of material poured across the beaches in six days.

In the first 24 hours of the assault, American forces suffered some 18,000 casualties on Utah and Omaha beaches.

Lt. Col. Russell R. Raab of East Orange, N. J., estimated 5 per cent of the visitors to the cemetery yesterday were French. They are still friendly to Americans he said. Almost every French family in this area lost someone during the war.

Several veterans who fought on this same beach 10 years ago had returned for the pilgrimage. There also were dozens of Normandy veterans in the special honor guard of about 400 U. S. troops brought here for the ceremonies.

The feeling they seemed to share was expressed by Lt. John J. Moglia of Hempstead, N. Y., who said:

"I always wanted to come back to see this place of terrain under different conditions. Now the beaches. I could never forget are hard to find. If it weren't for the cemetery the beach would look like a summer resort. Most of the obstacles that were here 10 years ago are gone now."

"Yes," said Lt. Col. Albert H. Smith Jr. of Baltimore, Md. who hit the beach in one of the earliest assault waves "it's amazing there are so few of the cars of war per lease operation, Plea guilty, fined $100.00.

cookies for the dusty correspondents. Ernie Pyle became a favorite customer.

When the war moved deeper into France and the press headquarters felt bad about it. We had come to correspondents and Mme. Hamel felt bad about it. We had come to love the wonderful old chateau, and she had come to feel toward us, she said, as if we were her own grandsons.

And so, as a group of us talked about going back to visit the chateau this week, it was with a mixture of love and fear. For what if Mme. Hamel were gone, and new faces came to the door? Our trek left.

The years have been kind to these hills that we beat up so. When the speeches and ceremonies were over, the honor guard, still carrying rifles began to wander among the rows of crosses.

Each had been decorated with small French and U.S. flags. "Some of the fellows left quite a few friends here," said Lt. Robert Lindorf of Chicago.

Campanella Leads Current Dodger Drive

By BEN PHLEGAR.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Campy's back and the Dodgers are threatening to turn the National League pennant race into another Brooklyn runaway.

Since big, genial Roy Campanella returned to action they've won every game they've played and now have a streak of 10, as long as any in the circuit this season.

The hard-working catcher, fretted through 28 days of inactivity after an operation on his broken left wrist. And his Dodger teammates fretted right along with him, blowing games they should have won, slumping at the plate and bobbling in the field.

In the last week in May they lost four in a row, including a 16-7 slaughter to their bitter rivals, the New York Giants. The day after this disaster they regrouped their forces enough to squeeze out a 4-2 decision over the Giants on a two-out, ninth-inning homer by Pee Wee Reese.

Campanella went behind the plate the next day, a week ago Sunday, and since then it's been just one victory after another. Almost without exception the decisions have been close of the 10 were decided by two runs or less. But it has been the Dodgers on the long end as they moved from fourth place to a firm hold on the league lead.

They had to battle 12 innings last night before subduing the St. Louis Cardinals 7-5. After Carl Furillo singled in the tie-breaking run, Campanella stole home for the extra tally.

The New York Giants beat Milwaukee 4-2 and the Boston Red Sox won a pair from Detroit 3-2 and 5-4, the second game in 12 innings. The rest of the teams in both leagues were idle.

The Brooklyn victory came after the Cards had put the winning run on third base with nobody out during a three-run uprising in the ninth. Preacher Roe went into the last of the ninth with a 3-2 lead. A single by Red Schoendienst, a walk to Stan Musial and Ray Jablonski's double drove Roe out, one run in and brought on Jim Hughes.

Bill Sarni blasted Hughes' first pitch for a triple. Then Hughes walked the next two batters, Sarni and got two outs on pop flies, the third on an infield grounder.

Campanella aided the early attack with a home run. The Braves sank into fourth place as they bowed to runner-up Giants, who trail Brooklyn by two games. Milwaukee now is four games back.

Whitey Lockman's home run with Wes Westrum on base in the second inning provided the winning margin. Milwaukee didn't get a ball out of the infield against Sal Maglie until the sixth inning. Marv Grissom finished after Maglie tied in the seventh. Eddie Mathews hit a 420-foot home run off Grissom in the eighth.

Boston's double triumph moved the Red Sox into fifth place in the American League, only 3 1/2 games out of first division. Frankie Sullivan and Tom Brewer, two rookie right-handers, teamed the Braves, with Brewer going all the way in the 13-inning nightcap.

The Red Sox hopped on Steve Gromek for three runs in the first three innings of the first game. Mitt Bolling drove home the winning run in the second game with a single after Harry Agganis had singled and moved to second on a sacrifice. A two-run pinch-hit homer by Fred Hatfield in the ninth sent the game into extra innings after Boston had built a 4-2 margin.

Musial Earns Name of Slugger.
NEW YORK (AP)—They don't call Stan Musial a "slugger" for nothing.

Not only does the 33-year-old St. Louis Cardinal hold the National League record for the highest slugging percentage among 10-year men past or present, but he is well out in front this season with a .785 slugging mark.

Musial has collected 150 total bases in 191 times at bat. He has slammed 13 doubles, three triples and 19 home runs among his 73 hits.

In a little more than 11 seasons with the Redbirds, Strn has piled up 3,896 total bases in 6,604 trips to the plate for a slugging average of .585. Babe Ruth holds the American League lifetime record of .690.

Patterson Decisions Maxim in N.Y.
By JACK HAND.
NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson, the 19-year-old Olympic grand-oute, won a "newspaper decision" over Joey Maxim last night, but champion grabbed the verdict that counts—a unanimous if unpopular vote by the three officials.

Cut Diamoto, manager of Patterson, who had won his 13 previous starts, shouted he would protest today to the New York State Athletic Commission.

"According to the rules, only clean and effective punches count," he said. "My fighter landed three only hitting punches. I'm going to see Bob Christyberry today to see boxing commissioners about it."

The Hope Bears will play the Mandeville Sluggers at City Park Tuesday night, June 8th. Game time 8 p. m. Admission 40¢ and 50¢.

Barons Grab Lead in the Southern.
By The Associated Press.
Birmingham's young Barons, who less than two weeks ago staggered through a six-game losing streak, grabbed the Southern Association lead last night from the reeling Atlanta Crackers, who have capped only three of their last 10 games.

The Barons topped Chattanooga 4-1 in the windup of a game suspended by a Sunday curfew the day before. Then in the regular game, Jack Urban stopped the Lookouts on seven hits as the Barons took the lead with a 3-2 verdict.

Nashville humbled Atlanta 15-0, Little Rock slapped Mobile 12-0 and New Orleans nipped Memphis 4-2 in 10 innings.

The Barons needed only two innings to put the first game, the victory column. Mark Freeman had a one-hitter and a 3-0 lead when the game was suspended. Ernie Nichols took over and got into trouble, but Dave Benedict bailed him out.

Atlanta paraded five pitchers to the mound in the Nashville hit-fest, including Junior Wooten, a veteran five runs and five hits in a veteran outfielder. Wooten, who yielded five runs and five hits in three innings, was tagged with the loss.

Little Rock's conquest of Mobile's caddy-dwelling Bears was easy. The Trays had a 12-1 lead before lefty Dick Hoaksem, a fired in the ninth and was chased during a five-run rally. Ralph A. Atkins and Norm Larker, the rival first baseman hit home runs.

Nashville Comes to Legion Field Tonight at 8

Tonight at 8 o'clock, at Legion field, Hope will play host to Nashville in Little River League play. It will be the first appearance for the Howard County team here this year.

In all probability Charles Gough will be on the mound for the Hope nine.

Wednesday night a team from Little Rock, the Babe Benning All-Stars, will play the Legionnaires starting at 8 o'clock. Benning is well known here and was a major league player for years. He has a veteran ball team which promises a good game.

Donz Stevens, who played with the Legion boys the past two seasons, will pitch for Hope against the L. R. crew.

Formal Pony League to Open Tonight
Tonight at 6 p. m. the Pony League will have its formal opening in Legion Park. The first game of the night's double-header will place the Hope Beverage team vs the Hope Auto team.

The opening of the Pony League and the formal opening of the Little River Valley League by the Legionnaires meeting Nashville at 8:15 in Legion Park is another 20 years being presented by the Rotary, Merchants Committee and Parks and Recreation Commission during this Family Picnic Week. His Honor the Mayor John L. Wilson will be on hand to toss in the first ball for the opening of the Legionnaires game.

All of these activities including the Legionnaires game tonight are presented free to the public with emphasis upon family group participation. Our city park offers a great deal in lines of Recreation and there are always some good clean recreational activities going on.

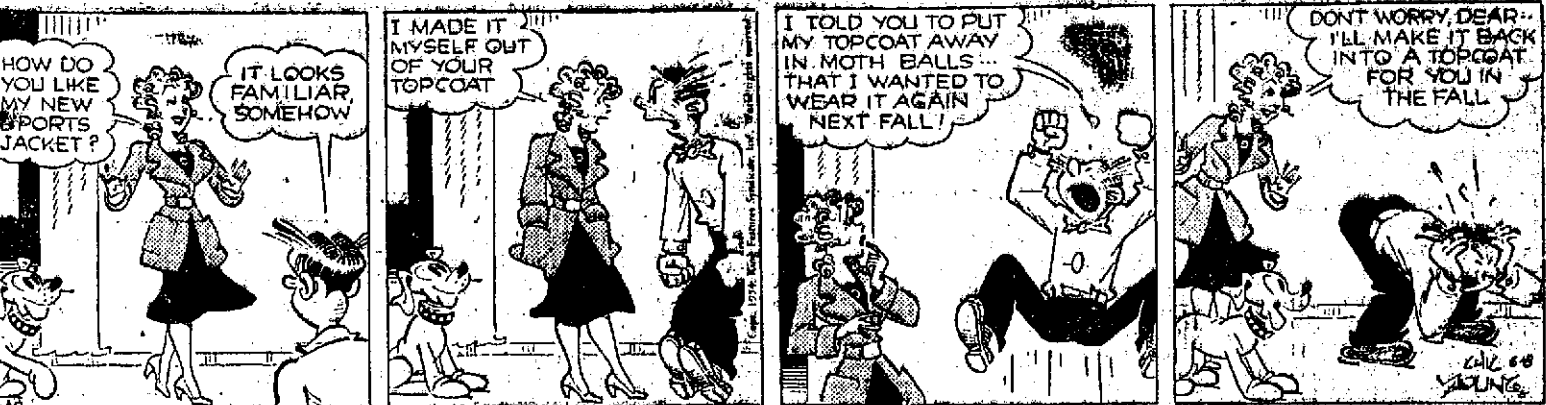

McCarthy Recall Move Is Failure
SAUK CITY, Wis. (UP)—Le Roy Gore head of the movement to recall Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said today the move had failed and he was taking all petitions out of Wisconsin to keep them from being "suspicious."

"The mail was extremely heavy this morning," Gore said, "but we won't have enough to force the recall election. We'll try again after the November elections when only a little more than half as many names will be needed."

Gore said the "great milk" of the petitions would be displayed to newsmen tonight in Chicago.

The founder of the "Joe Must Go" movement said he had been informed upon his return here from Men

Most Secret Agencies at Stage's Center

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's two most highly secret agencies — the Central Intelligence Agency and the Atomic Energy Commission — manage to stay inconspicuous most of the time. Now they've been pulled to the center of the stage.

The CIA is not only this country's super spy organization in other countries but is the coordinator and clearing house on intelligence information in other agencies, such as the Navy, Army, Air Force, State Department.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) during the Senate hearings on his row with Army officials, taunted Communist infiltration of the CIA. CIA Director Allen Dulles said that was false. Dulles once before refused to let McCarthy question CIA employees.

The senator's interest in the top-secret CIA must have chilled not only Allen Dulles but President Eisenhower as well. McCarthy has shown a willingness to disregard secret labels when it suits him. At the current hearings he urged all government employees to pump secrets to him.

For years the AEC — headed by a five-man commission — has managed to stay out of public squabbles. The AEC, like CIA, is protected from the public gaze by laws laying down the secrecy rules under which it must operate.

Now the five commissioners are in public dispute about how much authority the chairman, AEC, Lewis L. Strauss, should have. In addition the status of Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, one of the world's great scientists, has been dumped in their lap.

In 1949, when Strauss was just one of the five commissioners and not chairman, he favored an all-out effort to make an H-bomb. Three of the other commissioners, disagreed with Strauss. SO DID Oppenheimer, then an adviser to AEC, and other scientists. Former President Truman solved that dilemma on Jan. 31, 1950, by ordering all-out work on the H-bomb.

Last July Eisenhower made Strauss AEC chairman. A few days later Strauss ordered an investigation of Oppenheimer, who, having been director of the A-bomb development during the war, had been investigated before. In December he gave Oppenheimer the choice of being dropped as an AEC consultant or asking for a hearing. Oppenheimer asked for the hearing. The AEC appointed a special three-man board of inquiry to conduct it.

Last week, this special board found Oppenheimer both loyal and discreet. Nevertheless, by a 2-1 vote, it said he should not be let in on any more secrets. The two-man majority expressed concern over Oppenheimer's 1949 opposition to the all-out H-bomb program.

Oppenheimer appealed to the full five-man AEC commission to review his case, and it has agreed to do so.

Meanwhile, the Senate-House Committee on Atomic Energy is holding hearings to consider, among other things, changing the atomic energy law to make the chairman, now Strauss, "principal officer of the commission." This proposal was made by two top Republicans on the congressional committee; Rep. W. Sterling Cole of New York and Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa.

Strauss and Joseph Campbell generally went along with the idea. Opposing it were three Truman appointees: Dr. Henry DeWolf Smyth, Thomas E. Murray and Eugene M. Zuckert. They said they feared it would mean making the chairman boss and the other four commissioners rubber stamps.

Under present law all five commissioners have equal authority.

"I was really impressed by the Miller picture," said the band leader. "I thought it was the first time the band business has been properly presented on the screen. Usually we're just brought in to do a few numbers and have nothing else to do."

He speaks from experience. He has appeared in half a dozen films, from "Hollywood Hotel" (1937) to "A Song Is Born" (1948). His experiences were not too rewarding artistically, and he resisted all offers to film his life until the Miller film.

I talked to Goodman and his film Boswells at lunch and found him slightly more talkative than in the past. Although he was one of the leading instigators of a nervous era, he seems calm and relaxed now. He's 45, but he still has his apple-cheeked appearance and is the picture of health.

A year ago, he collapsed during a triumphant return tour with his old band. "But it wasn't my heart, the doctors told me," he said. "It was just fatigue. I figured out I had averaged four hours' sleep for four nights. There was too much excitement."

He's back tooting his clarinet but this time with small combos

In night clubs. I asked him if he thought the band business would come back as big as it was in the prewar years.

"The band business was just like the movies," he remarked. "In these years, any movie good or bad, made money. It was the same with bands. The business supported a lot of bands that weren't exceptional."

The really good bands, just like good movies, still do good business, he said. But the mediocre in both categories die on the vine. The bands are further hurt by the fact that kids don't dance, as much as their elders did, he said.

Pole Sitter Still Fighting AP&L

LITTLE ROCK Ark. (AP) Little Rock's Pole Sitters Union took "move r say die" attitude and their hole to hole battle against the Arkansas Power and Light Co. before the City Council here last night.

Mrs. Raymond Padgett's determined leader of the housewives, took her "apron and broom, platoon before the Council to protest an AP&L petition to the Arkansas Public Service Commission for a rate increase effective July 1.

The champion of "neighborhood rights" and her feminine recruits fought the company's attempts to construct a 115,000-volt power line through their residential area by dangling legs and arms inside pole holes. A court order, obtained by the company last week, forbid the group to interfere with crews installing the 80-foot poles.

The strike stopped. But a bulletin board in front of Mrs. Padgett's house read "The setting out of respect for the court, not out of respect for the Arkansas Power and Light Company."

Mrs. Padgett told city aldermen "I don't think they (AP&L) deserve a raise. I don't think they have shown just cause for it."

Then, "pole sitting" business finished, Mrs. Padgett, who once said "you can't beat a woman" had her final say.

"I've listened to a lot tonight and I think I'd like to be an alderman. I rather like it, I really do."
